ReBirth Brass Band and John Hammond - SALT LAKE CITY – The place to be on Thursday night in Salt Lake, the Twilight Concert Series, welcomes ReBirth Brass Band from New Orleans on August 17 and John Hammond.

The Twilight Concert Series, presented by the Salt Lake City Arts Council, continues every Thursday night through August 24, downtown at the Gallivan Center, 239 South Main. The concerts are free and begin at 7:00 p.m.

ReBirth Brass Band

Simply put, The ReBirth Brass Band is an institution. Formed in 1983, the band has long since graduated from the streets of New Orleans to theaters and festivals all over the world. ReBirth is committed to upholding the tradition of brass bands while at the same time incorporating modern music into their show. Their signature brand of heavy funk has placed them among the world's top brass bands and they are the hands-down favorite among the younger generation. In reference to the sometimes stringent competition amongst brass bands, Offbeat magazine remarked, "...it's clear that ReBirth, which boasts 10 albums and has traveled the world, is the band to beat (July 2001)."

John Hammond

From coffeehouses to concert halls, festivals and beyond, John Hammond has spent forty years entertaining blues, folk and rock audiences around the world. A Grammy Award winner and four-time nominee, Hammond is also a multiple W.C. Handy award winner who has shared the stage and recorded with many of the masters, including Muddy Waters, Willie Dixon, John Lee Hooker and Howlin' Wolf. The passion he brings to the blues is a testament to the dedication and reverence he has for the musicians who first walked the path he has chosen to follow. Tom Waits, when asked about John said, "John's sound is so compelling, complete, symmetrical and soulful with just his voice, guitar and harmonica, it is at first impossible to imagine improving it...He's a great force of nature. John sounds like a big train coming. He chops them all down."

Concert-goers can enjoy shopping at the Twilight Market from 5 to 10 p.m., with a wonderful assortment of foods, beverages and locally produced arts and crafts. Barbecue, vegetarian fare, pastas—and everything in between—are available in the Market. Handcrafted items including jewelry, ceramics, puppets, handbags, and garden art will be available for sale at the Twilight Market.

For best seating, concert-goers should arrive early. Blankets and chairs may not be placed before 1:30 p.m., and someone must remain with the blanket at all times. Only low-backed chairs are permitted. The Gallivan Center does not allow pets. Concerts will proceed, rain or shine.

Aug. 19 - West Valley City

International Folk Festival (IFF) - The International Folk Festival (IFF), FREE ADMISSION for enjoyment of folk music, dance, arts & crafts and food, is a unique Folk Arts & Arts in Education program of the WVC Arts Council. This is a three-fold program of the WVC Arts Council: the bridging of the cultural gaps thus creating the economic and cultural connections with the different nations through the city's great Host Families, school program and the magical bonding created in showcasing each country's heritage through music and dances.

On behalf of Governor Huntsman, Palmer DePaulis, Executive Director of Community and Culture, will open up the ceremonies for the festival welcoming the invited nations, China, Mongolia, Panama, Greece, Tahiti, Japan and others alongside with Utah's best cultural groups.

SPONSORED by the West Valley City Arts Council(WVCAC), funded in part by the Utah Arts Council(UAC), Zoo Arts and Parks (ZAP) and the Salt Lake Community Action Program (SLCAP).

DETAILS:

The preparation for this unique project takes months from October 2005 to September 2006. The involved processes, aside from the actual logistics of the festival, are: setting of the festival dates 10 months before the festival, selection process of the countries, invitations, contracts, visa petition processes through the Department of Homeland Security and dealings with different US Embassies culminating with consular interviews and passport procurement. And many times, countries are not approved to go after all.

The invited countries pay their own way to share their unique culture in festivals outside their countries. Their whole week of board, lodging and local transportation are all provided by the Host Family Program. This program is comprised of a rare group of community participants freely volunteering their homes. Language may pose a problem, often solved by the language of love and care, as attested by David and Helene Thomas, who hosted several Bulgarian performing artists in their home and had bridged the cultural gap. Robert and Marian, members of the Host Family Program, said, "It was hard saying goodbye, after the cultural bonding with the our guests...". "We had a wonderful time!", said Yvonne Jones, another repeat member of the program. "It is a precious opportunity of experiencing a sometimes-unknown culture metamorphosing into a cadre of new friends into the homes of the community..." the festival coordinator added.

Festival Coordinator, Aida Mattingley, is working closely with the office of Senator Orrin Hatch, as the processes can get complicated with conflicting information received, in spite of all requirements fulfilled. And many times, these countries are not allowed to leave their country after all.

As a whole, the city and its surrounding communities benefit the most, especially the children. They get to culturally and educationally soak themselves which they would not have otherwise. This is a volunteer-driven project of the WVC Arts Council.

New Warrior Training Adventure - This is a men's WEEKEND experience starting at 6 pm Friday finishing at 4 pm Sunday.

For men who want to become better men, plain and simple.

You may be a natural leader of men and yet you still want more or you may be in the throws of a crisis and have no clue which way is up!

If you are confident already and notice there are still situations where you could act better, this training will change the way you experience that reaction.

Maybe you wimp out with women, with powerful men, in groups... Or react with anger inappropriately?

The New Warrior Training Adventure reaches into your masculine soul wakes up forces within you that have been there from the very beginning of time... forces that the very best fathers, leaders, husbands partners and brothers have always shared.

The Weekend welcomes all men and is not religious but many men experience a valuable spiritual connection that they may have had trouble "feeling" before.

Make no mistake, you WILL elevate your sense of accountability to yourself, your family and your community. We want to instill every man in the world with the drive and context to be a man of integrity, a man of honor and a man with a mission that is true to your heart!

We literally awaken your head, heart and soul to the power, courage, terror and inspiration of being a man.

Compassionate, not apologetic for being men nor tolerant of idiotic modernist stereotypes.

The Mankind Project is 20 years old, a 503C Not for Profit Corp and have trained 35,000 men in 10 countries in three languages. As a largely "grassroots" organization we tend to be a word of mouth marketer, men experience the training and tell other men. The Salt Lake area community of New Warrior men's groups is sponsored by the Mankind Project Arizona Center and the September training will be the 2nd training in this area. There are 125 trainings a year around the world, follow the links at <http://az0906dep.mollyguard.com> if the September date doesn't work for you.

Arizona has New Warrior Training Adventures in August and October and Los Angeles does 5 trainings a year. Again, follow links from <http://az0906dep.mollyguard.com> to find more.

Neil Simon Festival - The 4th season of hilarious and inspired performances of Neil Simon's plays will leave many people wondering why more people don't know about this gem of a festival. The featured plays this year are:

"God's Favorite:" A Long Island tycoon, his wife, a prodigal son, and a pair of kookie twins are living a luxurious life when a messenger from God enters. Everything becomes a test of our modern Job's faith, including his family. Come and see if he can pass the test as you laugh out loud.

"I Ought To Be In Pictures:" The teenage daughter of a once-successful Hollywood scriptwriter journeys from Brooklyn to Hollywood to confront him 16 years later. She tells him she wants him to get her into pictures, but that is not her real purpose. See how they pick up the pieces of this poignant and tender father-daughter relationship.

"The Good Doctor:" This is a tribute to Anton Chekhov. It features a series of comic sketches about a con artist, an inexperienced dental assistant, a bank robbery gone awry, etc. A warm and tender comedy.

"The Nerd" - Heritage Theatre Presents the "The Nerd" by Larry Shue. This is a neatly crafted package of non-stop laughter about Rick Steadman who saved Willum Cubberts life in Vietnam. Now he has come to visit his old friend, and it is soon apparent that he is a hopeless "Nerd". A bumbling oaf with no social sense, little intelligence, and less tact. When he stays on and on, Willum finds himself contemplating violence. But a surprising "twist" ending staves off such a dire development. Directed by Allan Smith who is from Hooper, and works at the Treehouse Children's Museum. The cast includes Bryce Day as the amicable Willum Cubbert. Bryce is sure to bring his special sense of humor to this role as he did in "The Pirates of Penzance" as the fast talking Major General. Blake Weller as Rick Steadman is a very convincing "Nerd". He last appeared as Samuel in "The Pirates of Penzance" The rest of the cast includes Robert Goodwin as Axel Hammond. Holli Christensen Rackham plays Tansy McGinnis. Warnock Waldgrave is acted by Scott Nelson. Shelia Brownif plays Clelia Waldgrave. Riley Brown aptly plays Thor Waldgrave. Road Trip - Take a Trip to Sanpete County this Spring, Summer

Worried about taking a family "road trip" vacation this spring or summer due to ever-climbing gas prices? The Sanpete County Travel and Heritage Council has a great idea: come and take a holiday in the historical cities and towns along U.S. Highway 89, the Heritage Highway. "Sanpete County is only a two hour drive from Salt Lake City and less than one hour from Utah County, making it a convenient and economical family get away, whether it's for a few days or a few weeks," says Kevin Christensen, the county's travel director. "What also sets Sanpete County apart is that no matter which direction you are coming from, the drive into the county is spectacular, with beautiful scenery everywhere. Getting here is truly half the fun," he says.

Across Utah, many of the county tourism and travel associations are urging Utahns to take vacations "in their own backyards" this summer and explore what the state has to offer. "In Sanpete County, there are numerous events taking place in the spring and summer months, from Pioneer Day celebrations to star watching parties to a Rhubarb festival. There is literally something for everyone," Christensen says.

In addition to the planned events and festival, the county also offers ongoing art exhibits, museums and other attractions every day of the year, he says.

July is a very busy month in Sanpete County, with Mt. Pleasant's Hub City Days held July 1 to 4. It includes a mountain man rendezvous, rodeo, parade, fireworks and more. The celebration, in honor of Mt. Pleasant being the Hub City of Sanpete County, is just some of the many things to see and do along Utah's Heritage Highway, U.S. 89 over the July 4th holiday.

Gunnison City will hold "Home Town Patriots Days" July 2 to 4 featuring a patriotic fireside and parade and Manti will holds its annual celebration July 2 to 4 in the City Park featuring attractions, events, food, crafts, exhibits and more.

July 11 to 24, Fairview City will hold its Pioneer Days celebrations, including the annual "Lace Days" at the Fairview Museum, which celebrates the art, history and skill of lace making, and attracts lace-making enthusiasts and visitors from the state, country and even outside the United States. Highlights include lace-making demonstrations, information on crochet, knit, netting, and needle lace, exhibitor tables, and a class on making lace ornaments.

Mayfield will also hold a Pioneer Day celebration July 24 with a parade and other events. In addition to the scheduled events, the cities and towns of Sanpete County are known for being rich in art and art history. There is the Fairview City museum, with historical artefacts, exhibits and work by local artists, including works by the famous late sculptor Avard Fairbanks and his works on Abraham Lincoln.

There are also restored theatres and buildings, including the Moroni Opera House, the Star Theatre in Gunnison, the Manti City Hall Building, and most of Mt. Pleasant's Main Street. The county is also home to numerous artists, craft makers and unique boutiques and craft shops, including the Ephraim Co-op, which carries works of many local artists.

Sanpete County is also a popular spot for outdoor sports. Many of its back and country roads are open to vehicles, ATVs and bike riders. Rock climbing is also a big draw in the summer months with the county's rugged cliffs that draw rock climbers from all over the country. In particular, Maple Canyon, located west of Moroni, offers climbers more than 80 established routes. Fishing, horseback riding and camping are all other popular warm-weather sports.

Utah Shakespearean Festival - The Tony Award-winning Utah Shakespearean Festival is Utah's premiere theatre destination. Each June through October nine Shakespearean and modern classic theatre productions are presented in one of the country's closest replicas of the Globe Theatre and in the Randall L. Jones Theatre. The 2006 summer season, from June 22 to September 2, features a great lineup with familiar classics and undiscovered favorites. The romantic story of Antony and Cleopatra, the tragic tale of Hamlet, and the comedic gem The Merry Wives of Windsor are sure to delight audiences. The classic Gilbert and Sullivan musical, H.M.S. Pinafore, promises to be a crowd-pleaser with Fred C. Adams, festival founder and executive producer emeritus, in a rare on-stage performance. The drama, On Golden Pond, explores the ties of families across generations. Finally, the summer season is rounded out with the farce of the American theatre, Room Service.

If autumn temperatures and gorgeous fall colors appeal to you, The Festival's Fall season is the perfect combination of outdoor splendor and world-renowned theatre. Three additional productions run from September 22 to October 28. Shakespeare's controversial The Merchant of Venice, the endearing story of Peg o' My Heart, and the campy musical Johnny Guitar make the perfect combination of drama, excitement, and romance.

No Festival experience is complete without the many additional activities available at the Festival: music, costume, actor, and literary seminars; backstage tours; and complimentary Greenshow entertainment each evening.
